

couragement of Local Art will be held at the rooms of the Artists' Guild, Dolph building, Seventh and Locust streets, at 8:30 p.m. Thursday.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

Fine solid silverware, the best, at Mermod, Jaccard & King Co.

The meeting of the P. E. O. Club last Monday was devoted to the reports of committees, and the discussion of the outline of literary work to be adopted. The meetings of the club will be held at the Washington Hotel this year.

Mermod, Jaccard & King Co., Messrs. J. C. Meyer and Mrs. Gertrude Bradley by invitation; Mrs. J. W. Lyons by denim. A social half hour is always a feature.

On Friday evening, April 14, Miss Alice Underwood added much to the pleasure of guests by singing several songs.

The reciprocity meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. H. Carron next Monday.

The Twentieth Century Art Club, Inc., met on Monday evening at a hotel at the Washington Hotel. A very interesting meeting is expected, as Japanese art will be the subject of discussion. Mrs. Artie, a native of Japan, will speak on "Pottery and Lacquer," and Mrs. G. W. Galbraith on "Embroidery." Mrs. Walter M. Moore, "Metal Work." At the last meeting Mrs. Bell Kremser read a comprehensive paper.

At St. Louis to New York via Big Four, stopover at Washington.

One of the most delightful meetings of the month will be held by the members of the club, Club, First Floor, No. 1000, the residence of Mrs. J. W. Lyons, No. 2000 Grand avenue. It will be a paper on "Painting and Drawing." Mrs. J. W. Lyons added much to the pleasure of guests by singing several songs.

The reciprocity meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. H. Carron next Monday.

eress of the day were: Mrs. John W. Harrison, the Misses Finney and Fullman, Minnie Bradley, D. Lee, E. C. Whitman, W. J. McNeirick.

Mrs. H. N. Spencer read an interesting paper on "Colonial Dames of Colonial Days."

Willard Bartlett, a popular young matron of the chapter, was the soloist, and rendered two selections.

Miss Deleath served punch during the social hour. Refreshments were served in the dining-room.

The Carondelet Women's Club, Monday evening, at the home of Mrs. Frank Brown, discussed "Paintings at the World's Fair," led by Mrs. John Walsh.

The first section of the Morning Club will entertain their friends at an evening meeting Friday in the home of the president, Mrs. Howard Watson, No. 515 Davis avenue. Refreshments were served in the dining-room.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Worthington, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Worthington, Mr. Harry Neidhardt, and Mrs. Howard J. Gains, traveling in Mr. and Mrs. George L. Moore's car from New York to Yelverton, National Park, were guests at a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Frumberg, No. 509 Davis avenue, during their short stay in this city. Mrs. Frumberg and Mr. Gogginheim are cousins.

European Hat Dressing Co., Taylor and Oliver, specialists during April.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Ernest Chamber have just returned to the city after a week's visit to New York City, where Mr. Chamber has extensive business interests. During their stay in New York Mr. Chamber was entertained by Mr. Chamber, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moulton, in his home at Riverside, on the Hudson.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Joseph have returned from California and Salt Lake and are at home at the Hamilton Hotel.

Mrs. I. T. Price of No. 468 Evans avenue has returned from Chicago, where she was called on account of her daughter's illness.

Mrs. Wilson and her son, Robert M. Wilson, have rented their home furnished and taken apartments at No. 422 West Broadway.

Cincinnati trains via Big Four leave 8:45 a.m. 12 noon 3:30 p.m.

The Misses White and Gertrude Mitchell who are staying at the Westmorland Hotel are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Phelps of New York for a fortnight.

Mrs. Caroline has returned from New York, where she visited her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Callahan, for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. London, No. 465 Botanical avenue, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, April 6, first child.

Mrs. C. P. Ellinger, who has been spending the winter with her son in St. Louis, returned on Tuesday and has joined her husband at Hotel Beau.

Miss Alvina Hong of Calumet departed last week for Canada to spend the summer with her sister, Mrs. E. C. Hubbard.

The Misses M. J. and E. H. Hockenberry of New Haven, Conn., are guests at Hotel Beau.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jarvis Alexander have just returned from a Southern trip, and spent some time with their Alexander's sister, Mrs. Frank Charles Finley, at her home in San Antonio, Tex.

Mr. and Mrs. Elias Laupheimer moved

Photograph by Marullo of New York.

Who is visiting in St. Louis? Miss Martha Paul, daughter of Mr. L. G. Paul, Miss Paul is a soprano singer of distinction, but is now recuperating after a serious illness. She will return East to-morrow.

from No. 368 Morgan street to No. 312A Kensington avenue.

KIRKWOOD, MO.

Miss Fontaine Jones departed a few days ago for Europe with a party of friends, and will remain till fall.

Miss Lorraine Webster has returned from a brief visit to Alton.

Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Anson have leased their home at 1000 Locust.

Charles J. Jacob is visiting his sister, Mrs. Theodore Buente, in Deluge, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Hand and Mrs. Nixon of Chicago, Ill., departed Saturday to join her parents Judge and Mrs. W. H. Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Matthews, who have spent the winter in St. Louis, are at home again.

The marriage of Miss Miriam Hough to Mr. E. H. Berkley will be celebrated in May.

Mr. John W. Good with his daughter, Mrs. Mary, and wife, are spending a week in Wheeling, W. Va., for a few years will soon return to Kirkwood to reside.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Williams will depart for Portland, Ore., this week to visit their daughter, Miss Eva, who is attending Central College.

Miss Loraine F. Jones Jr. and Miss Elizabeth Worthen were married in her home in Helena, Ark. After the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Jones will reside in Helena. Captain and Mrs. Loraine F. Jones and Miss Worthen, who went to the wedding, have returned to Miss Emily, their relative, in St. Louis. They were accompanied by her son, Mrs. Kenneth of Philadelphia, whose guest she had been all winter.

The Monday Evening Club of Kirkwood met last week at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Williams, operators of Miss Pram's Piano School on "Early St. Louis." She told of the settlement and growth of the city and of the homes and customs of the people. Among those present were Judge and Mrs. W. W. Keyser, Mrs. Bills of Omaha, Judge and Mrs. J. B. Greenbaum, Doctor and Mrs. Carl E. Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Profitt, Mrs. J. W. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. E. Wild, Miss Carrie Wild, Mrs. John L. Gray, Mrs. Cochran, Mrs. H. D. McLean, Miss McLean, Mrs. Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. Doctor E. L. Petty and F. P. Seitzer.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Judd, who have had the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Williams, operators of Miss Pram's Piano School, moved to the Lexington.

The Kirkwood Fortnightly Club met Tuesday afternoon at Mrs. Carl Phelps' home in the absence of its president, Mrs. T. D. Kimball, who was ill.

It was the "industrial meeting" of the season, and G. H. Neiderman, State Fire Marshal, spoke on "Fire Protection Laws of Missouri."

He told of much that had been done in recent years to make pleasant and better the place to live in the state.

Mr. Kimball read a paper on "Child Labor," telling of the factor laws of Missouri.

Mrs. Sneed, Mrs. Steele and Mrs. Anna Armstrong, Mrs. C. F. Johnson, J. T. Hester and the Misses L. N. Benson, Augusta Quarles, Alice Kelly and Carolyn Allen.

The Tuesday Evening Club had its last meeting of the season at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. James Fox of St. Louis are at the Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Gray will build a home in Westown and Washington ave. this spring.

The Monday Evening Club of Kirkwood met last week at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Williams, operators of Miss Pram's Piano School on "Early St. Louis."

She told of the settlement and growth of the city and of the homes and customs of the people.

Among those present were Judge and Mrs. W. W. Keyser, Mrs. Bills of Omaha, Judge and Mrs. J. B. Greenbaum, Doctor and Mrs. Carl E. Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Profitt, Mrs. J. W. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. E. Wild, Miss Carrie Wild, Mrs. John L. Gray, Mrs. Cochran, Mrs. H. D. McLean, Miss McLean, Mrs. Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. Doctor E. L. Petty and F. P. Seitzer.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Judd, who have had the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Williams, operators of Miss Pram's Piano School, moved to the Lexington.

The Kirkwood Fortnightly Club met Tuesday afternoon at Mrs. Carl Phelps' home in the absence of its president, Mrs. T. D. Kimball, who was ill.

It was the "industrial meeting" of the season, and G. H. Neiderman, State Fire Marshal, spoke on "Fire Protection Laws of Missouri."

He told of much that had been done in recent years to make pleasant and better the place to live in the state.

Mr. Kimball read a paper on "Child Labor," telling of the factor laws of Missouri.

Mrs. Sneed, Mrs. Steele and Mrs. Anna Armstrong, Mrs. C. F. Johnson, J. T. Hester and the Misses L. N. Benson, Augusta Quarles, Alice Kelly and Carolyn Allen.

The Tuesday Evening Club had its last meeting of the season at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. James Fox of St. Louis are at the Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Gray will build a home in Westown and Washington ave. this spring.

The Monday Evening Club of Kirkwood met last week at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Williams, operators of Miss Pram's Piano School on "Early St. Louis."

She told of the settlement and growth of the city and of the homes and customs of the people.

Among those present were Judge and Mrs. W. W. Keyser, Mrs. Bills of Omaha, Judge and Mrs. J. B. Greenbaum, Doctor and Mrs. Carl E. Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Profitt, Mrs. J. W. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. E. Wild, Miss Carrie Wild, Mrs. John L. Gray, Mrs. Cochran, Mrs. H. D. McLean, Miss McLean, Mrs. Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. Doctor E. L. Petty and F. P. Seitzer.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Judd, who have had the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Williams, operators of Miss Pram's Piano School, moved to the Lexington.

The Kirkwood Fortnightly Club met Tuesday afternoon at Mrs. Carl Phelps' home in the absence of its president, Mrs. T. D. Kimball, who was ill.

It was the "industrial meeting" of the season, and G. H. Neiderman, State Fire Marshal, spoke on "Fire Protection Laws of Missouri."

He told of much that had been done in recent years to make pleasant and better the place to live in the state.

Mr. Kimball read a paper on "Child Labor," telling of the factor laws of Missouri.

Mrs. Sneed, Mrs. Steele and Mrs. Anna Armstrong, Mrs. C. F. Johnson, J. T. Hester and the Misses L. N. Benson, Augusta Quarles, Alice Kelly and Carolyn Allen.

The Tuesday Evening Club had its last meeting of the season at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. James Fox of St. Louis are at the Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Gray will build a home in Westown and Washington ave. this spring.

The Monday Evening Club of Kirkwood met last week at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Williams, operators of Miss Pram's Piano School on "Early St. Louis."

She told of the settlement and growth of the city and of the homes and customs of the people.

Among those present were Judge and Mrs. W. W. Keyser, Mrs. Bills of Omaha, Judge and Mrs. J. B. Greenbaum, Doctor and Mrs. Carl E. Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Profitt, Mrs. J. W. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. E. Wild, Miss Carrie Wild, Mrs. John L. Gray, Mrs. Cochran, Mrs. H. D. McLean, Miss McLean, Mrs. Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. Doctor E. L. Petty and F. P. Seitzer.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Judd, who have had the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Williams, operators of Miss Pram's Piano School, moved to the Lexington.

The Kirkwood Fortnightly Club met Tuesday afternoon at Mrs. Carl Phelps' home in the absence of its president, Mrs. T. D. Kimball, who was ill.

It was the "industrial meeting" of the season, and G. H. Neiderman, State Fire Marshal, spoke on "Fire Protection Laws of Missouri."

He told of much that had been done in recent years to make pleasant and better the place to live in the state.

Mr. Kimball read a paper on "Child Labor," telling of the factor laws of Missouri.

Mrs. Sneed, Mrs. Steele and Mrs. Anna Armstrong, Mrs. C. F. Johnson, J. T. Hester and the Misses L. N. Benson, Augusta Quarles, Alice Kelly and Carolyn Allen.

The Tuesday Evening Club had its last meeting of the season at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. James Fox of St. Louis are at the Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Gray will build a home in Westown and Washington ave. this spring.

The Monday Evening Club of Kirkwood met last week at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Williams, operators of Miss Pram's Piano School on "Early St. Louis."

She told of the settlement and growth of the city and of the homes and customs of the people.

Among those present were Judge and Mrs. W. W. Keyser, Mrs. Bills of Omaha, Judge and Mrs. J. B. Greenbaum, Doctor and Mrs. Carl E. Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Profitt, Mrs. J. W. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. E. Wild, Miss Carrie Wild, Mrs. John L. Gray, Mrs. Cochran, Mrs. H. D. McLean, Miss McLean, Mrs. Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. Doctor E. L. Petty and F. P. Seitzer.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Judd, who have had the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Williams, operators of Miss Pram's Piano School, moved to the Lexington.

The Kirkwood Fortnightly Club met Tuesday afternoon at Mrs. Carl Phelps' home in the absence of its president, Mrs. T. D. Kimball, who was ill.

It was the "industrial meeting" of the season, and G. H. Neiderman, State Fire Marshal, spoke on "Fire Protection Laws of Missouri."

He told of much that had been done in recent years to make pleasant and better the place to live in the state.

Mr. Kimball read a paper on "Child Labor," telling of the factor laws of Missouri.

Mrs. Sneed, Mrs. Steele and Mrs. Anna Armstrong, Mrs. C. F. Johnson, J. T. Hester and the Misses L. N. Benson, Augusta Quarles, Alice Kelly and Carolyn Allen.

The Tuesday Evening Club had its last meeting of the season at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. James Fox of St. Louis are at the Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Gray will build a home in Westown and Washington ave. this spring.

The Monday Evening Club of Kirkwood met last week at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Williams, operators of Miss Pram's Piano School on "Early St. Louis."

</